

Will planner

A handy tool to prepare you for meeting with your solicitor

Before meeting with your solicitor, it's a good idea to plan what you want to include and who you want to benefit. You can use this form to gather your thoughts and plans in one place for easy reference at your meeting. (Please note that this will planner is not a legal document and cannot be used as a valid will.)

*Guardians have legal responsibility for children until they turn 18.

2. Work out how much your estate is worth

List all your assets (what you own) and liabilities (what you owe) below. Then add together everything you own and subtract everything you owe to work out what your estate is worth.

Other property or land	£	Loans/overdrafts	£
Car (or other vehicle)	£	Credit cards	£

3. Decide what you would like to leave to whom

You will need to decide which gifts will go to whom in your will. You can give a specific item (e.g. a family heirloom), a fixed cash amount, or a percentage of your estate (calculated when all other costs and gifts have been taken into account).
